

WHAT'S DOING IN TOWN?

Mrs. R. J. Gaffan spent the week end in Tulsa.

Little Bonnie Morris visited in Sapulpa Saturday.

Mrs. Emma McCarter was on the sick list last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carter returned Saturday after a month's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sniderman of Kansas City are spending a few days in Tulsa.

Miss Cora Hillard, who spent the week in Tulsa, returned to Muskogee Sunday.

Mrs. Bessie Gibson is back from Arkansas after an extensive visit with relatives.

Mr. W. H. Smith, our expert team man spent several days on his farm at Muskogee last week.

Mrs. Ida B. Smith, wife of contractor Smith, spent Saturday in Tulsa the guest of her husband. She returned home Monday.

Mr. L. V. Jackson called in to see us Sunday and left an order for printing ribbons for the Grand Lodge of Masons to be held at Sand Springs, Oct. 1, 2, 3.

Mr. Fred Douglass left Sunday for Oklahoma City, where he went as a delegate to the State Democratic meeting in that city. Mr. Douglass wields much influence in Democatic Circles.

Mrs. Letha King, assisted by Mrs. B. J. Greene, chaperoned a bunch of youngsters on an outing Saturday to Red Fork. After an elaborate spread, the bunch went on a 5-mile hike. The Camp Fire girls and Fife-worth Guards of Wesley M. E. Church with friends composed the party.

Mr. John Goodwin, of the Jackson and Goodwin Undertaking firm spent several hours in Claremore Saturday looking after business interests. He says the war has almost stripped that town of manpower, so far as the Colored man is concerned.

Detective Smitherman, who is always on his job picked up Estella Grier and Sam Walker in a room in the Red Wing Hotel Sunday night and arrested them both on a charge of lewd conduct. Mrs. Presley, wife of the proprietor, put the officer "nest" hence the arrest. The Red Wing is the best place for our people and when any one makes it a sporting house they must look out for the arm of the law.

Miss Myrtle Anderson, one of the best prepared young women of our race and a lecturer of the first kind, will be at the First Baptist Church, Tuesday, Sept. 24. Every one in the race should hear this polished young Colored woman. She has won much fame as a debater on the Pacific Slope.

Mr. Chas. Allin, the tailor was in our office with a new order for job printing.

Sunday will be BALLY DAY for the trustees of Wesley Chapel M. E. Church. The program morning and evening will be conducted by laymen. One general subject will characterize the services, "The Layman's Part in The Building of a Church."

Both men and women will discuss this subject setting forth the claims of their respective sex.

ACCIDENTLY SHOOTS MOTHER

News reached here that Mrs. Ella Mayfield had been shot and painfully wounded in the neck, breast and leg by her son, who was shooting at a man. Mr. George Blakely and wife, and Mrs. A. P. Adams left for Shawnee, where the shooting occurred.

A KNOWLEDGE OF SPANISH MAKES BUSINESS

The ELLIOTT & HOOKE Store enjoys the largest Mexican trade of any store in the city. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hooker speak the Spanish language fluently, and in their polite way of dealing with their trade, has won the confidence and patronage of nearly all the Spanish speaking people of Tulsa.

MAYOR AND COMMISSIONERS "OPPOSE BIRTH OF A NATION"

A committee of Colored citizens waited on the Mayor and City Commissioners this morning to register a strong protest against the photo play "The Birth of a Nation," which is billed to play at the majestic theatre tomorrow and tomorrow night. A petition with a long list of signers was presented by Editor Smitherman who offered a strong plea for favorable consideration of the document followed by Capt. T. D. Jackson, who also argued in support of the petition.

The Mayor expressed himself as opposed to the showing the picture here at this time as also did Mayor pro tem McNulty, who with Police Commissioner Bohm was appointed to consult with the manager of the Majestic theatre and advise him to substitute another picture for the "Birth of a Nation."

Miss Beatrice Standers of Kansas City who has been visiting in this city returned to her home Monday.

Mr. J. B. Stratford of this city delivered an address to the citizens of Pawnee Sunday.

Mrs. Ben Williams who resided in the Gurley addition died last week and was buried in the Oaklawn cemetery by the Jackson-Goodwin undertaking company.

After a pleasant visit of several weeks in Oklahoma City Mrs. J. B. Stratford has returned home much to the delight of her many friends.

Robertson Hall, Colored, died at his home on north Lansing street yesterday morning. The remains were shipped to his former home in Gainesville, Texas, by the Jackson Goodwin undertaking company.

Mr. Perkins, an aged Colored citizen of Brownwood, Texas, is here attending the Confederate reunion. The Scribe had the pleasure of chatting with him at Pilot Point, Texas. He looks quite conspicuous wearing the grey.

Mr. Watson of the firm of Watson Brothers of Okmulgee, who has been traveling extensively arrived in the city Tuesday from Chicago.

Miss Helen Fowler Mis. Beaulah Parks, two of our excellent young ladies visited Claremore this week and reported a delightful trip.

A new doctor, a chiropodist, has located in Tulsa and has quarters in the Red Wing hotel.

Mr. Glen Caldwell was in the city from Detroit, Mich., last Sunday, en route to Okmulgee, Chandler and Oklahoma City. He was visiting his sisters, Mrs. Beatrice Caldwell and Miss Lucile Caldwell.

Miss Anderson, who captivated an audience at the First Baptist church last night with her oration, logic, etc., will deliver an address at Mt. Zion Baptist church on tonight. All praise her, and claim that she is one of the best speakers ever heard in Tulsa.

The Sunny Side cafe had us to print meal tickets this week. This place serves the best of everything.

Mr. M. J. Lathon was in with a program for us to print for a big reunion at Revere Park, October 20.

Some needed improvements have been made on the school grounds on Hartford street.
